

BELTA DAY 2018
5 May 2018
Erasmus Hogeschool, Campus Bloemenhof, Brussels, Belgium
Schedule

		3.12	3.08	3.16	3.17	3.18	3.19
8:00		REGISTRATION OPENS - Lobby Coffee & Tea available in Exhibition Hall from 8:30 – 4 th Floor
9:00	9:25	WELCOME John Arnold, BELTA President Room 3.13
9:30	10:30	Opening Plenary SCOTT THORBURY IS 'LANGUAGE' A COUNTABLE NOUN? Room 3.13
10:30	11:00	Coffee Break Exhibition Hall Visits 4 th Floor
11:00	11:40	Methodology is NOT Dead! – Discovering TBL and PBL Ron Morrain	Taking Back Control of Technology Pam Borg Tiffany Borg	Using poetry in a communicative, creative and expressive way Joost Swaenepoel	Feed-forward feedback: an approach to feedback for learner autonomy Ernesto Vargas Gil	Reading Circles in the classroom Sam Verdoodt	Silent videos, talking teens (active adults too) Fiona Mauchline
11:45	12:25		Three types of presentations used to write a reading portfolio Natascha Coene	DeepL. How the translation tool revolutionised teaching translation & communication Jurgen Basstanie	Learner Voices: #ProjectFound Christina Chorianopoulou TESOL Greece	Using Film to Teach Language and Raise Cultural Awareness Ruzbeh Babaee
12:30	13:15	LUNCH
13:15	13:45	EXHIBITION HALL VISITS
13:50	14:30	CLIL-cuisine - no-tech activating recipes for starting (CLIL-) teachers Mario Lecluyze	Beyond Intelligibility: Pronunciation Teaching in Global Environments Heather Hansen	Let's circle Tetiana Shyian	Culturally Responsive Teaching in the Contemporary Classroom Fulbright Hava Rosenberg Fulbright Grantee	Gamification & Additive Learning Hanii Malouf
14:35	15:15		English teaching in the Post-Truth Era James Taylor	Grammar Rules, OK? Bruno Leys	Visualising Speaking for Students John Arnold	The Feel-Good Factor - the psychology of successful language teaching Helen Coyne Wincott
15:20	15:55	Coffee Break Exhibition Hall Visits (Exhibition Closes at 16:00)
16:00	17:00	Closing Plenary SCOTT THORBURY FLUENCY AND HOW TO ACHIEVE IT Room 3.13
17:00	17:30	Raffle Presentation of the Joris De Roy Memorial Travel Grant Closing remarks – John Arnold, BELTA President Room 3.13					